> health of the community generally, I ask you, gentlemen, what means have we in case an opidemic should break out to discharge those duties which the law clearly and emphatically puts upon us. My own opinion is that it would be better, in the present state of affairs, that the Board he done away with altogether and that the responsibility for the sanitary condition of the colony be east upon the Colonial Surgeon and Government Imedical officers who have at their disposal a hospital, money, and everyig necessary. It would be far better that the Board be abolished and the responsibility left with the Government medical officers who have the means in their own hands, or if the Board is to take the responsibility the Government should give them the means of carrying out the work thrown upon them. If an epidemic were to break out what could the Board do beyond making bye-laws? They have not the means nor the medical officers, no medicine. If an epidemic of Dr. Barry was ridiculous. It may be pointed out that an epidemic hospital exists and that the place exists for the erection of matcheds on any extraordinary occasion. That is true, but there are two points to be considered with reference to that. The epidemic hospital is and under the control or management of the Board. It is under the control of the Colonial Surgeon and the Civil Medical Officers of the Colony, My contention is that Hospital with the necessary buildings and spire land should be placed at the disposal of the Board and remain under their control and management, and that a Health Officer should by the President as to the suitability of the buildsanguine person would never have thought that the town would spread so rapidly. The wave of rumour and uncasiness has rolled ack upon us. The auccess of the Ichang riot and the general excitement and absorption of the officials in the provincial examinations appear to have set the mischief makers to work again. On. Monday anonymous notices were thrown into the compounds of the Roman Catholic and Loudon Missions, which adjoin each other near the north gate of the city. These notices were in rhyming couplets, the characters arranged so as to form the strokes of the big words, "Heaven will not endure you." Numerous wrong characters were evidently intended to convey the idea of the illiterateness of the writer. The notice itself was an exposition of the text shove given, with which we are now as famitrade and religion are with their money to be driven out of the empire, at the latest by next spring. The letter ended with grim politeness -" with compliments to the foreigners." The matter was at once brought before the notice of H.B.M. Consul, and the native authorities were as to extent and is in itself, from its position in the instantly put on their guard. Immediat orders were issued to the various camps and barracks, and guards of goldiers were attached to the various Missions. A visit was paid by the Consul and the Captain of the British gunboat to the some of the threat, and all precautions taken and arrangements made for rendezvous in case of disturbance. The day occupied by the grand procession to the Examination Hall passed over quite quietly. At night a fire took place outside the city beyond stantly the electric search light from one of the men-of-war was flashed over the whole place. In the past we have reweatedly seen the search light flashing over the ther side of the hill, but last night was the first time our region has been illuminated. The moral effect of that electric light is most valuable. It is a sort of putting into dramatic form, The eye of Europe is upon you," which is

There is much said about vigorous telegrams received here on Monday from the Tenng-li Yamen, and there is no doubt that H.E. Chang hih-tung is highly enraged at Ichang thus stepping in to keep up the trouble of Wusueb: As to the future—there are ominous whispers here of the temper in which the numerous official Huranese living here have received the suggestion of the opening of their province to trade. But, if the Imperial Government be kept up to its duty by the Western Powers, whispers and mucmurs won't finally stop the march of events. One thing is now absolutely essectial; any demands must be pushed right through. There must be no half measures if China is to be bearable for the future. Daily News correspondent.
